On the occasion of the 140th anniversary of the world's first postage stamps, London is hosting a world exhibition dedicated to the postage stamp. Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has been graciously pleased to grant her Patronage to London 1980 and part of her famous Royal Collection forms a centerpiece to the exhibition. The postage stamps of St. Vincent extend through the reigns of six British monarchs, as a Crown Colony, an Associated State and since October 1979, an Independent Nation with Her Majesty as Head of State. St. Vincent's 1955 definitive stamps, adapted from the first issues of 1862, feature the same portrait of the Queen as current British stamps while the present issue reflects the postal heritage of the island, and depicts old and new markings of various island post offices.
