

South Sudan (2011 -)

In 1954, the Sudan became self-governing and, on Jan. 1, 1956, became an independent republic. Since its independence, Sudan has fought a prolonged civil war in the southern third of the country, where the predominantly black, pagan population seeks independence from the Arab, Moslem north.. South Sudan declared its independence on 2011, and joined the United Nations.

2011-South Sudan n° 1
€ 2,50
SOS-2015-Guyana
Y&T n°
First Stamps of UNO States

