

Ruanda-Urundi

(1924-1962)

Two areas of central Africa, between Zaire and Tanzania. Formerly part of German East Africa, they were occupied by Belgian Congo forces during World War I and subsequently were administered by Belgium under a League of Nations (later U.N.) mandate. They became independent in 1962 as the Republic of Rwanda and the Kingdom of Burundi.

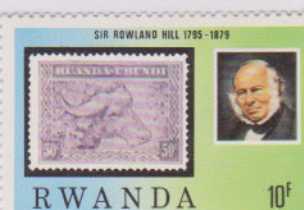

1924-Ruanda-Urundi
n° 68 - € 0,75

SOS-1979-Rwanda
Y&T n°906
100° Death Sir R. Hill

1931-Ruanda-Urundi
n° 96 - € 0,50

SOS-1979-Rwanda
Y&T n°907
100° Death Sir R. Hill

1943-Ruanda-Urundi
n° 145 - € 1,50

SOS-1979-Rwanda
Y&T n°908
100° Death Sir R. Hill

1953-Ruanda-Urundi
n° 186 - € 1,10

SOS-1979-Rwanda
Y&T n°909
100° Death Sir R. Hill

1953-Ruanda-Urundi
n° 186 - € 1,10

SOS-1969-Rwanda
Y&T n°A5
Philexafrique '6

1959-Ruanda Urundi
n° 205 (I) - € 0,15

SOS-2015 Mozambico
Y&T n°
Stamps on Stamps

1960-Ruanda-Urundi
n° 221 - € 0,25

SOS-1979-Rwanda
Y&T n°910
100° Death Sir R. Hill

