

Iraq

(1923-)

A republic in western Asia, occupying the Tigris and Euphrates valley, north of Arabia. In the early 16th century, it was conquered by the Ottoman Turks, and its first stamps were those of the Ottoman Turkish Empire. During World War I, Mesopotamia was occupied by British forces, and it became a British mandated territory in 1920. In 1921, a kingdom was established under Faisal I. Britain withdrew from Iraq in 1932. In 1979, Saddam Hussein became president, quickly establishing his power in a bloody purge. In 2004 the Iraq was occupied by USA.
