

Armenia (1919-1923, 1992-)

The southernmost area of the Caucasus. Armenia was conquered by the Russians during the 19th century. Between May 1918 and April 1921, it existed as an independent republic, issuing its own stamps. In 1923, it joined the Transcaucasian Federation of Soviet Republics. With the breakup of the Soviet Union, Armenia again became an independent republic.
