Nagorno Karabakh (Armenia) (1993 -)

Nagorno Karabakh is a landlocked region, located in the southern Caucasus and geologically belonging to the Armenian Plateau. It grows at the southeastern end of the Caucasus Minor mountain range and covers an area of 8223 km².

Nagorno Karabakh is almost entirely occupied by the Republic of Arkakh, established in 1991, as the Republic of Nagorno

Nagorno Karabakh is almost entirely occupied by the Republic of Arkakh, established in 1991 as the Republic of Nagorno Karabakh, which is not part of the northern region of Shahumian (current Goranboy district) under the control of Azerbaijan after the war of Nagorno Karabakh.

1993-Nagorno Karabakh SW n° 1- € 0,75

SOS-2018-Nagorno Karabakh - WS n° 162 25° Nagorno Stamps

1993-Nagorno Karabakh SW n° 1- € 0,75

SOS-2018-Nagorno Karabakh - WS n° B162 25° Nagorno Stamps

