

Singapore

(1966 - )

An island off the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula. Singapore was a British territory administered as part of the Straits Settlements from 1826 to 1942. It was under Japanese occupation from 1942 to 1945. In 1946, Singapore became a separate crown colony, joining with Malaya, Sarawak and Sabah in 1963 to form the Federation of Malaysia. In 1965, Singapore withdrew from the federation and proclaimed itself an independent republic.

Care for Nature

A decade of conservation towards a lifetime of resources

Nature is an intrinsic part of our lives. It provides balance, harmony and supports an endless diversity of life in an intricate and interdependent chain. The pursuit of economic growth and a healthy environment are inextricably linked. All of us have a part to play in bringing about sustainable economic development that is meeting the needs of the present without compromising those of the future.

This year, The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (HSBC) and Singapore Philatelic Bureau celebrate their 10th year of partnership since launching the Care-for-Nature stamp series to promote and develop greater awareness and interest in the natural environment of Singapore. Reproduced here is the entire collection of Care-for-Nature stamps released from 1991 to 2000. The stamp issues are sponsored by HSBC under its Care-for-Nature environment conservation and education programme. Proceeds from the sale of the HSBC Care-for-Nature Collectors' Covers and Limited Stamp Print Collection are donated to the Care-for-Nature Trust fund which in turn provides funding for environmental conservation and education projects.
