

Italy

(1862-)

A republic in western Europe. By 1815, the country was roughly divided into several spheres: the Sardinian kingdom, which ruled the island of Sardinia and northwestern Italy; the Lombardo-Venetian Kingdom, which was ruled by Austria, the Papal States, which controlled the central portion of the peninsula; and the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies in the south. On March 17, 1861, the united Kingdom of Italy was proclaimed under the House of Savoy. Domestic unrest after World War I brought the Fascist party to power in 1922. The Fascists, under Benito Mussolini. Mussolini was deposed in 1943, although he was put in charge of the northern Italian Social Republic. In 1946, the monarchy was abolished, and Italy became a republic.
