

Turkey (1863-)

A republic in southeastern Europe and western Asia. During the 19th century, the territorial integrity of the state was maintained only because the European powers could not agree upon the division of the spoils. A nationalist Turkish government was formed in Ankara in 1920, with Mustafa Kemal as president. Tension with Greece, a fellow NATO member, over the status of Cyprus, has at times threatened to estrange Turkey from its Western allies. During the 1990's, Turkey has been plagued by ongoing armed resistance from its Kurdish minority and by the rise in recent years of a fundamentalist Islamic opposition.
