

Czechoslovakia

(1918-1993)

A former republic in central Europe. In 1918, Czechoslovakia became independent from Austria. During World War II, both Slovakia and the truncated Czech state, renamed Bohemia-Moravia, were under German control. In 1945, the Czechoslovak republic was re-established, Carpatho-Ukraine detached and absorbed into the Soviet Union. In 1989, a democratic government was established, and in 1990, the country was renamed the Czech and Slovak Federal Republic. On January 1, 1993, Czechoslovakia split into the Czech Republic and Slovakia.
